Last night between 10 and 11 o'clock the residents in the vicinity of Main and Eighth streets were aroused by the firing of several shots, which followed repeated commands to halt. Investigation today developed that a member of the night police force while attempting to arrest two suspicious characters had been forced to take several shots at them. None of the shots took effect and the men escaped by running down Eighth street toward the railroad yards. The shooting took place directly in front of the home of C. O'Malley, the electrical man, who registers a kick against his slumbers being so rudely disturbed. About a week ago Officer Chapman was the target for two bullets fired from a revolver in the hands of a thug at about the same point where last night's shooting occurred.
